LOCAL NEWS.

MONDAY EVENING, MAY 13.

SUPERIOR WORKMANSHIP.—The locomotive Prince William—a splendid piece of machinery -which has been entirely rebuilt at, and was last week turned out from, the shop of the Orange and Alexandria Railroad in this city, and to-day made a trial trip over that road, is as excellent a piece of work, as regards all the parts of a first-class locomotive, as is ever produced in the Northern manufactories, and, with the passenger car, also completed there last week, reflects great credit upon the skill of its builders. There are now employed in the different shops at the Orange depot, more than ninety mechanics, the most of whom are Alexandrians.

CANAL MATTERS.-Large numbers of laborers have be been employed on the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal since Friday last, repairing the 6th day of June next. break in its bank, at the Cumberland Coal and Iron Company's wharf, near Georgetown, which then occurred, and their work has been so far of the boot and shoe store of Mr. Jabez Jay, advanced that water, it is supposed, will be let and for various other offences. in upon the Georgetown level and the Alexan dria Canal during the course of to-day.

The operations at the mines and at Cumber land are progressing favorably, the strikers having gone to work-many boats being already loaded, and on their way down to this city.

BASE BALL.—The first match game of the season was played Saturday afternoon, between the Monticello and Osceola Clubs, on the grounds of the Alexandria Base Ball Association. The game commenced at 3 o'clock, and honored prestige of the Old Dominion. was hotly contested up to half-past six, when the Monticello was declared victorious, the score standing: Monticello, 53; Osceola, 47. The Monticello made home runs, 0; fly catches, 7; foul fly, 5; foul bound catches, 5; out, 0; struck out, 2. The Osceola made home runs, 1; fly catches, 9; foul fly catches, 0; foul bound catches, 8; were put out at bases, 7; left on bases, 5; run out, 0; and struck out, 1. Umpire-James B. Steiner, of the Mount

FIGHT.—A regular old fashioned rough and tumble, bite and gouge fight, came off on the spur of the moment, about eight o'clock yesterday morning, at the depot of Orange and Alexandria Railroad, between an employee of the road and a brakesman on the Washington and Alexandria Railroad, in which the latter received a bitten finger and a cut head.

CIRCUS.—The Circus after affording infinite delight to the younger portion of the community, left here yesterday in the 12 o'clock Washington Ferry boat. A slight commotion was produced in that part of the pavilion occupied by the colored people last Saturday night, in FIREMENS' CONVENTION .- The delegates lately appointed by the different fire organizations, whose names have already been published in the Gazette, will meet in convention to-night, at the hall of the Sun Fire Company, for the purpose of adopting rules and regulations for the future government of the Fire Department of the city.

PROPERTY TRANSFER.—The Potomac Ferry Company have leased for a long term of years the two brick warehouses and wharf property attached, at the foot of King street, adjoining the Maryland Ferry Slip, belonging to Messrs. Wheat & Brother, and have already enclosed the wharf, preparatory to making extensive improvements there.

POTOMAC RIVER.—The steamers Columbia and Wawaset arrived at an early hour yesterday afternoon, with good freight and many passengers from the lower Potomac.

Should the Hi. Livingston, due here to-day, fail to arrive, the Wawaset will start on her late Major Mann Page Lomax, U. S. army. trip to Currioman to-morrow morning as usual.

THE JAIL BRAKERS.-Information having been received of the probable whereabouts of the five men who broke jail here last Friday night, some of the officers have gone in their pursuit. The men seen on the Fredericksburg road early Saturday were not the escaped prisoners, as at one time was supposed.

RECEIPTS OF PRODUCE. - Ten thous and seven hundred and twenty-four bushels of corn were received at the freight depot of the Orduring last week In addition to the corn pied by Messrs. Cazenove & Co. during last week. In addition to the corn there were large quantities of wheat, oats and flour received at the same depot.

B. B. CLUB ROBBED. - The rooms of the Mount Vernon Base Ball Club were discovered copartnership, by mutual consent. The business hereafter will be conducted by E. Mr. Weir was s gentleman, whose personal worth was acknowledged by all who knew him; possessed of strong sense, an amiable disposition, and a kind benev-olent heart, he was greatly beloved, not only by his immediate family, but by a large circle of friends and acquaintances. We much doubt whether he ever had an enemy. Our deceased friend had been for many years a worthy member of the Protestant Episcopal Church, and had, in an eminent degree, that unobtrusive piety, gentle disposition, and the "charity which thinketh no evil," combined with an integrity of soul, which stamped him as "an honest man, the noblest work of God." During his last illness he bore his sufferings with great patience and resignation to the Divine will, and a few friend standing near his bedside, the cheering words, "all is well," and calmly, quietly, and without, a struggle, he passed away from earth to the Paradise of God.
